Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,

we worship you, we give you thanks,

we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father:

receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A READING FROM 2 KINGS 5:1-3, 7-15c

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel."

PSALM 111:1-8

1 Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the deeds of the LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures forever.

4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
— all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast forever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

A READING FROM 2 TIMOTHY 2:8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David-- that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;

if we are faithless, he remains faithful-- for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

SEQUENCE HYMN 538 God of mercy, God of grace Lucerne Laudoniae

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 17:11-19.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

Deacon Jon Owens

THE NICENE CREED

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic (universal) and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Eternal God

John Rutter (b. 1945)

*Eternal God, we give you thanks for music,
Blest gift from heav'n for all your servants here on earth:
In time of joy a crown, in sorrow consolation;
Companion through our days of tears and mirth.*

*We give you thanks for ev'ry sound of beauty:
For sweetest harmony that echoes in our hearts,
For melodies that soar on high like birds at morning,
For voice and instrument in all their parts.*

*As we are blest, so may our gift bless others:
May hearts be touched and spirits lifted up anew.
Let music draw together those who live as strangers,
Bring joy to those we love, in thankfulness true.*

*And when at last we come into your kingdom,
All discord over and all earthly labor done,
Then sound and silence yield before one equal music,
And with the Giver shall our souls be one.*

OFFERTORY HYMN 411

O bless the Lord, my soul!

St. Thomas

The people remain standing.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel as they choose. Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM

TROPICAL STORMS AND HURRICANE SEASON IS UPON US

During this time each year, there is the possibility of a tropical storm or hurricane coming in our direction. Although we have been blessed for the past several years with a limited amount of storms in our area, it is best to always be prepared. If the weather bureau has issued a TROPICAL STORM WARNING or a HURRICANE WARNING, we will not have any services nor will the office be open on that day. In the meantime, be sure that you have a "preparation plan for storms" ready in case it is necessary. And be sure to have All Saints' phone number (954-467-6496) handy in case of emergencies.

FOYER DINNERS - 2016 FALL SERIES

WHAT ARE FOYER DINNERS?

Foyer Dinners are a wonderful way for us to get to know our fellow parishioners better and to just have plain fun! Once a person or a couple signs up to participate in our Foyer Dinners, you will be assigned to a group of people, some of which you may not know very well. Remember... the object is to get to know people better. Groups are limited to 6 people so that there can be "good" conversation. Also, this allows most people's homes or apartments to accommodate this size group. By signing up to participate in a Foyer Dinner group, you are committing to approximate 2-3 dinners in your group members' homes (No restaurants, please!) over a 3-month period.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

Sign up begins now and will end on Monday, October 31, 2016. Sign-up will be done electronically. You may sign up any time by visiting our website and registering on the events tab <http://allsaintsfl.org/events/event-registration>. Each person must sign up individually.

If you do not have access to the internet, you may call the office to register 954-467-6496 (All Saints Office).

WHEN WILL THE FOYER DINNERS BEGIN?

Once the sign up period has ended, you will be notified (via email) of your group by early November. Within your group you will organize your first Foyer Dinner (or brunch) to be held sometime in the remainder of November. Then your group will plan 1 or 2 additional dinners during December and January. Groups should complete their dinners by the end of January.

We are in need of 2 or 3 "pop-up" tents that we can use on Oct. 19 for Leslie's celebration. Please contact Dan Hitchens if you can share your tent with us. danhitchens@comcast.net or 302-379-0239

October 19, 2016 at 6:00 p.m.

Reception to follow in Neaverson Chapel

Hello
my name is

Our new Rector, The Reverend Leslie Hague arrives October 19th.... Let's show our hospitality by helping Leslie and her wife, Katie, learn who we are. The best way to do that is by wearing your name tag every Sunday. So find your name tag and wear it each Sunday, beginning next Sunday. Don't have a name tag or you have lost yours? Stop by the Welcome kiosk to let one of our Welcome Ministers know. Let's make this important aspect for Leslie and Katie's learning process to be smooth and easy. If you simply do not want to wear your name tag; we respect that. Each of us should know by now, at All Saints ALL are welcomed, name tag or not !
