Nativity Story

According to the Gospel of Luke and Matthew

Narrator In this holy season we celebrate good news of great joy that God has sent his Son to live with us and fulfill his purpose. Because of this, the words of the Prophets: Moses, David, Isaiah and Daniel were fulfilled, God indeed, did send his Son to live among the people, the Son of God, yet the Son of Man.

In the time of Herod, king of Judea, in the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee. Gabriel was sent to a virgin named Mary, who was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David.

The angel went to Mary and said, "Greetings, Mary, you who are highly favored. The Lord is with you." Now, Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. But the angel Gabriel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favor with God. And behold, you will be with child and give birth to a son, and you will give him the name of Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. And of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Mary, thinking upon these words dared to ask of Gabriel, "How shall this be since I have yet to marry?" "The Holy Spirit will come upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child you will bear shall be called Holy, the Son of God. For with God, nothing is impossible." Mary responded, "I am the Lord's servant. May it come to be as you have said." And the angel left her.

HYMN

The angel Gabriel

Gabriel's Message

1. The angel Gabriel from heaven came,
his wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flames
"All hail" said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary,
most highly favored lady," Gloria!
2. "For know a blessed Mother thou shalt be,
all generations laud an honor thee,
thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold,
most highly favored lady," Gloria!
3. Then gently Mary meekly bowed her head.
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said
"my soul shall laud and magnify his holy Name."
most highly favored lady, Gloria!
4. Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born in Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say,
"most highly favored lady," Gloria!

Narrator And it came to pass, in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus stating that a census should be taken of the entire Roman World and that all should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment when Quirinius was governor of Syria and everyone was required to return to his own city to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee traveling with Mary to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David. Because Joseph was of that house and lineage it was there that he was required to register. The town, being full, had no inns with rooms.

Though there was one with a stable. And while they were there, the time came for the baby to be born and Mary gave birth to her firstborn, a son. Because there was no room for them in the inn, she wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger.

HYMN

Once in royal David's city

Irby

1. Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed; Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.
2. He came down from heaven, who is God and Lord of all, and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall; with the poor, the scorned, the lowly, lived on earth our Savior holy.
3. Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing round, we shall see him; but in heaven, where his saints his throne surround: Christ, revealed to faithful eye, set at God's right hand on high.

Narrator And there were, in the fields nearby, shepherds abiding there and keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo, an angel of the Lord appeared to them and the Glory of the Lord shone round about them and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good tidings, news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in Bethlehem, the town of David, a Savior has been born to you. He is Christ the Lord and this will be a sign to you. You will find the baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and singing...

HYMN

Go tell it on the mountain

Go Tell It on the Mountain

Refrain Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

1. While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, behold, through-out the heavens there shone a holy light.

Refrain Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

2. The shepherds feared and trembled when lo above the earth rang out the angels chorus that hailed our Saviors birth.

Refrain Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

3. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

Refrain Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

Narrator

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the angel of the Lord has told us about. And they hurried off and found Mary, Joseph and the baby, lying in the manger. When they had seen him they hastened to spread the word about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told to them. The shepherds returned to their fields glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, just as the angel had said to them.

HYMN

What child is this

Greensleeves

1. What child is this, who laid to rest, on Mary's lap is sleeping?

Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, while shepherds watch are keeping

Refrain This, this is Christ the king, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary

2. Why lies he in such mean estate, where ox and ass are feeding?

Good Christian fear; for sinners here the silent word is pleading.

Refrain This, this is Christ the king, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary

3. So bring him incense, gold and myrrh; Come, peasant, king, to own him.

The King of kings salvation brings; Let loving hearts enthrone him.

Refrain This, this is Christ the king, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary

Narrator

Now, when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea during the reign of Herod the King, Magi from the East came to Jerusalem for they had seen the Star in the East and had come to find the baby and give him homage. Arriving in Jerusalem they inquired, "Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him." When King Herod heard this he was disturbed. So he gathered together all Jerusalem's chief priests, scribes and teachers of the law and demanded to know where the Christ was to be born. They responded, "In Bethlehem as it is written. 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel'." Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and make a careful search for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me so that I too may go and worship him."

HYMN

We three kings

Three Kings of Orient

1. We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar.

Fields and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

Refrain O star of wonder star of night, Star with royal beauty bright.
Westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

2. Glorious now behold him arise, King and God and Sacrifice.

Alleluia, alleluia! Sounds through the earth and skies.

Refrain O star of wonder star of night, Star with royal beauty bright.
Westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

Narrator After they had heard the king, they went on their way and the star they had seen in the East went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw the star they were overjoyed. On coming to the place, they beheld the child with his mother Mary and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with their gifts of gold, and frankincense and myrrh. And, having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their countries by another route.

HOLY COMMUNION
EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER B

OFFERTORY SOLO

O Holy Night

English/French translation:

*O Holy Night! The stars are brightly shining
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth!
Long lay the world in sin and error pining till he appear'd and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary soul rejoices for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn!*

*Fall on your knees, oh hear the angel voices
Oh night divine, Oh night when Christ was born
Oh night divine, Oh night divine.*

*Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming, with glowing hearts by His cradle we stand
So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming, here come the wise men from Orient land
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger in all our trials born to be our friend*

*Truly He taught us to love one another,
His law is love and His gospel is peace
Chains shall He break for the slave is our brother
And in His name all oppression shall cease
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
Let all within us praise His holy name*

OFFERTORY HYMN

Hark! the herald angels sing

Mendelssohn

(Please stand)

1. Hark! The herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Hark! The heralds angels sing glory to the newborn King!

2. Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die, born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings, light and life to all he brings,
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness! Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hark! The heralds angels sing glory to the newborn King!

The Eucharistic Gifts are brought forward

The people remain standing. The Celebrant, whether bishop or priest, faces them and sings or says

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive the power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel as they so choose.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept. Then may be said, or sung

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Hymnal, S-155

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

COMMUNION SOLO

the way to glory is open to the wretched for thou has become the Gate of Heaven.
Thou art the door of the High King, the gate of shining light.
Life is given through a Virgin: Rejoice, ye redeemed nations.
Glory be to Thee, O Lord, Born of a Virgin, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.*
