PROCESSIONAL HYMN 175
Hail thee, festival day!
Salve festa dies

THE WORD OF GOD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A SONG OF PRAISE:
Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ACTS 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

PSALM 118:1-2, 14-24

1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; *
   his mercy endures for ever.

2 Let Israel now proclaim, *
   "His mercy endures for ever."

14 The LORD is my strength and my song, *
   and he has become my salvation.

15 There is a sound of exultation and victory *
   — in the tents of the righteous.

16 "The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
   the right hand of the LORD is exalted! *
   the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!"

17 I shall not die, but live, *
   and declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD has punished me sorely, *
   but he did not hand me over to death.

19 Open for me the gates of righteousness; *
   I will enter them; *
   I will offer thanks to the LORD.

20 "This is the gate of the LORD; *
   — he who is righteous may enter."

21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
   and have become my salvation.

22 The same stone which the builders rejected * has become the chief cornerstone.

23 This is the LORD's doing, *
   and it is marvelous in our eyes.

24 On this day the LORD has acted; *
   we will rejoicing and be glad in it.
A READING FROM PAUL’S FIRST LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD ACCORDING TO MARK

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 16:1-8
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?” When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.” So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Leslie J. Hague

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant We come with anticipation on this first day of the week to become witnesses, sharing in the resurrection life of Jesus, as we pray: Alleluia! Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Intercessor Eternal One, you have filled your Church with new life and empowered us through the conquering love of Jesus: Raise us with your Spirit that we may live in the power of Christ’s resurrection to bring life and light to all the world. Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Intercessor The right hand of the Most High has triumphed over evil and death, bringing new hope to all the world: Speak your living truth unto everyone who leads and holds authority among the nations, that they may be agents of life and justice. Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Intercessor The Apostle Peter has taught us that you show no partiality, O God, but you accept all who live reverently and do right: Let your peace extend to every person, that the power of evil and injustice may be banished, and all people may live as beloved children of the divine. Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Intercessor Be with us in this community that we may be glad witnesses of your goodness, O Holy One. Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Intercessor Christ the wounded healer has overcome all that can threaten us. Let his resurrection power bring healing and hope to those for whom we pray:

for those on our All Saints prayer list, especially Jack and Jaime; for Father Dave, Mary and Richard who will receive communion at home this week; and for others we may wish to name, either silently or aloud.

(Pause for quiet reflection)

Give thanks to God who is good, whose mercy endures for ever. We offer our grateful gladness this Easter Day, for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week; and for others we may wish to name, either silently or aloud.

(Pause for quiet reflection)

Christ has died and is risen, bringing life and immortality to light. We remember those who have died, especially Dorothy Bowen, Marie Bristol, Hal Crawford, Bud Reiss, and Marjorie and Jane Herrick whose generous bequests have allowed us to significantly pay down our debt; and also those we name either silently or aloud.

(Pause for quiet reflection)

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People He is risen indeed. Alleluia!
Gracious Eternal and Loving God, you have anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and raised him from death on the cross into resurrection life: Feed us with his life as we eat and drink with him in this Easter Eucharist, that we may be his witnesses, sharing in the Spirit’s work of reconciliation and peace, through the Risen One, Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE PEACE
Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION
The Holy Eucharist, Prayer D

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
On Earth Has Dawned This Day of Days
Jeremy J. Bankson (b. 1975)

For Christ is risen from the tomb, and light and joy have conquered doom. Alleluia!

At early morn, with spices rare, the women three assembled there,
All to anoint fair Mary’s Son, over death had vict’ry won. Alleluia!

“Whom seek ye here?” the angel said; “The Lord is risen from the dead;
see where he lay; let joy begin, the tomb is empty: enter in!” Alleluia!

So let our songs to heaven wing, the vault with alleluias ring, in praise of Christ, our risen Lord; new life to all he doth afford. Alleluia!

OFFERTORY HYMN 210
The day of resurrection!
Ellacombe

The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.
Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.
Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.
Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior.
Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new. And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember Presiding Bishop Michael; our bishop Peter; Mother Leslie, Father David, Father Carl, Father Todd, Deacon Jon and all who minister in your Church. Remember all your people of All Saints Episcopal Church and those who seek your truth. Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM

Celebrant and People

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. S-155

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to receive communion or to receive a blessing.

Prayer Partners during Communion

(Prayer Partners are available near the pulpit during Communion. All wishing to have special supportive prayers for yourself or others are encouraged to approach the prayer partner during communion time).
Hallelujah

from Heavenly Home: Three American Songs

Hallelujah, hallelujah! And let this feeble body fail, and let it faint or die;
My soul shall quit this mournful vale, and soar to worlds on high;
And I’ll sing hallelujah, and you’ll sing hallelujah,
And we’ll all sing hallelujah, when we arrive at home.
O what are all my suff’ring here, if Lord, Thou count me meet,
With that enraptured host to appear, and worship at Thy feet!
And I’ll sing hallelujah, and you’ll sing hallelujah,
And we’ll all sing hallelujah, when we arrive at home.
Give joy or grief, give ease or pain, take life or friends away,
But let me find them all again in that eternal day.
And I’ll sing hallelujah, and you’ll sing hallelujah,
And we’ll all sing hallelujah, when we arrive at home.

Lift your voice rejoicing, Mary

Awake and sing the song

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

N. (and N.) we send you out to share Communion this week with N. N. (and N.N.)
May you carry the prayers of all of us as you take this sacrament of Christ’s presence.
May those who receive it from you be strengthened and encouraged in that community we have together in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

WEDNESDAY HEALING PRAYER WITH EUCHARIST

Wednesday, April 4 12:05 p.m.
(please use the entrance by Jensen Courtyard)
Has anyone ever asked you to remember them in your prayers? Every Wednesday at noon in St. Luke’s Chapel, we have a special service of prayer, anointing, and laying on of hands for healing. If you have been asked to pray for others, please join us in this important ministry of prayer.

THIS WEEK IS THE COMMEMORATION OF EASTER WEDNESDAY

VESPERs (EVENING PRAYERS – RITE I) AT ALL SAINTS

Every Thursday Evening at 6:30 pm
This evening, Vespers will be in St. Luke’s Chapel
Vespers is a wonderful and deeply spiritual liturgy of prayer which is the penultimate of the ancient daily Christian “Prayer Hours.” Vespers offers us an opportunity for thanksgiving for the good in the day, to let go of the stresses of work and life; and to turn all things earthly, over to God near the end of the day.

THURSDAY, APRIL 5
COMMEMORATION OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

It is not too late!

We are still welcoming all UTO donations…..

Blue Boxes, envelopes, checks, cash.
All are appreciated!
A CHRISTIAN RESPONSE TO GUN VIOLENCE:
A COURSE FROM CHURCHNEXT

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 2018    10:00 AM TO 12:30 PM

From ChurchNext: “Every 7-8 years, one million Americans are killed or injured by firearms in a country that has nearly more guns than people...These facts are of grave concern to most Christians, including Episcopal Bishops and theologians Eugene Sutton and Ian Douglas who believe Christians can do more. These bishops are founding members of Bishops United Against Gun Violence and have spoken and written extensively on this subject.”

I invite you to join me in a morning of prayer, conversation, and reflection on Saturday, April 14 from 10:00 AM-12:30 PM in Neaverson Chapel at All Saints Episcopal Church.

Videos include:
“The Unholy Trinity” and “Violence and the Bible” with the Rt. Rev. Eugene Sutton, Bishop of Maryland

After each video, we will have time for reflection and conversation around the topics of violence and social justice. We will close with worship and prayer.

As ChurchNext notes, “This class is ideal for those who are looking for ways to think more deeply about this pressing social issue.” ChurchNext provides online, video courses taught by expert teachers across a wide range of Christian disciplines.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR BEDS AROUND THE ALTAR

April 30th-May 3rd, 2018

All Saints will be hosting several families from the community the week of April 30th through May 3rd. These families have found themselves at a difficult time in their lives, particularly being without a safe and permanent place to live. All Saints is part of an ecumenical network of churches in Broward County. These churches provide week-long stays until family shelter space or other temporary housing becomes available. During the week, volunteers play an essential role in providing Christian hospitality while these families are guests of the All Saints community. Individuals or families prepare a meal and visit with our guest families. Each evening, two overnight hosts spend the night providing a safe place to sleep. With All Saints’ helping hands, these families are supported during this vulnerable time in a loving community of faith. Many of our volunteers have expressed what a rewarding experience they have after spending time with these families who are in true need of our hospitality. We are coordinating volunteers to bring evening meals to feed the families at 5:15 pm and hosts to be on-site overnight with the families from 7 pm until 7 am in the church sanctuary. As a faith community, All Saints provides a safe place to sleep, dinner, breakfast, a bagged lunch, shower and laundry facilities. For more information or to volunteer, contact Gregg Geenty-Prudhomme 434-249-7030. gregg.geentyprudhomme@gm.slc.edu

Hebrews 13:2

Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that, some have entertained angels without knowing it.

This is a great way to share with those in need who are on the streets asking for a handout. Instead of giving cash, you can give a “packet” that will give them some nutriment to help them through the day. Plus, there is a note that is included in the packet that gives them the phone number to a “Broward Help Line” and also a comment that “God loves you.” The packets are a bargain for $2 each or 3 for $5.

The funds that are collected are recycled into the “Outreach Fund” to purchase more supplies for the packets. A special thanks to Frank Asterita for keeping the supply going for us. The Outreach Committee says a big THANKS for your support!
All Saints Popcorn Theology present “Saved”
Sunday, April 15th at 3:00 pm in the Neaverson Chapel

Join us for popcorn and drinks as we watch and discuss the movie.
♦ What does it mean to be saved?
♦ What does it mean for Christian witness in a world of hypocrisy?
♦ How do you witness in the world?
Discipleship: Following Jesus Together

Join us Saturday April 21st for a lunch conference on Discipleship. We will explore the concept of how we follow Jesus together in our local community and throughout our city.

When: Saturday, April 21st. 11:30am-4:30pm

Cost: $20 (includes lunch)

Where: Neaverson Chapel

About the guest presenters:

Joe and Keijo Bollinger work with Cru CITY. They met in Orlando, FL in 2008 when they were both serving with missions organizations there.

Together with their 4 children, God has called them to build a community where we help followers of Jesus grow in their faith and where those who still don't know Him are able to observe and have opportunities to follow Jesus too. "We welcome relationships where God's truths can be explored, celebrated and practiced together. This kind of attention to individual people is at the heart of discipleship and this is how we spend the majority of our time."

As part of a team of about twenty five other missionaries all doing discipleship in different demographics of Orlando for the good of the city. "We wonder what will happen as we trust God and engage the people closest to us to see the good plans God has for them and the city come to life."
