THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
PROPER 24
HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

BCP 355

The Rev. Carl H. Beasley is the celebrant and preacher today.

VOLUNTARY Prelude in C BWV 553 Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 390 Praise to the Lord Lobe den Herren

THE WORD OF GOD

Celebrant Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A SONG OF PRAISE Glory to God S-280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM GENESIS 32:22-31

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

PSALM 121

(spoken in unison)

Levavi oculos

- 1 I lift up my eyes to the hills; *
from where is my help to come?
- 2 My help comes from the LORD, *
the maker of heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not let your foot be moved * and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.
- 4 Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel *
shall neither slumber nor sleep;
- 5 The LORD himself watches over you; *
the LORD is your shade at your right hand,

- 6 So that the sun shall not strike you by day, *
nor the moon by night.
- 7 The LORD shall preserve you from all evil; *
it is he who shall keep you safe.
- 8 The LORD shall watch over your going out and your coming in, *
from this time forth for evermore.

A READING FROM 2 TIMOTHY 3:14-4:5

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

People Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN 530

Spread, O spread, thou mighty word Gott sei Dank

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD ACCORDING TO LUKE

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 18:1-8.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Carl H. Beasley

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant In peace, let us pray to the Lord:

Leader For the Church of God, that we may be filled with love, generosity and truth so to transform our communities and our world;

People May your light guide us and shine through us.

Leader For the leaders of our nation, and the leaders of all nations;

People May your light instill in them compassion and good judgment, and guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Leader For all who hold authority in your Church, that they may shine your light brightly;

People May your Spirit inspire them with creativity, renew their energy, and give them wisdom and love.

Leader For those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week, and for blessings on all of our human endeavors, and for the just and proper use of the beauty and abundance of creation;

People May each of us love and serve you in ways that shine your light in our communities and beyond to free your world from poverty, famine and oppression.

Leader For the sick in body, mind or spirit, especially those on our All Saints prayer list, for Winnie O'Connor who will receive communion at home this week, and for those we now name in our hearts;

People May your light bring hope and healing to all who suffer.

Leader For all who have died, especially Cindy Pettigrew and for those who grieve, and for those we now name in our hearts;

People May your perpetual light shine on all the saints who have gone before us.

All Oh God, in your infinite generosity you have created a world with resources to sustain all of your children with abundance of food, work and recreation. Help us to let our light shine so brightly the whole world can witness your glory. In the name of Jesus, we pray.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Officiant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept. The congregation may stand or kneel.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

A Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION The Holy Eucharist, Prayer A

OFFERTORY ANTHEM How Can I Keep from Singing arr. Matthew Culloton

*My life flows on in endless song; Above earth's lamentation
I hear the sweet though far off hymn, That hails a new creation:
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing;
It finds an echo in my soul, How can I keep from singing?*

*What though my joys and comforts die? The Lord my Savior liveth;
What though the darkness gather round! Songs in the night He giveth:
No storm can shake my inmost calm, While to that refuge clinging;
Since Christ is Lord of Heav'n and earth, How can I keep from singing?*

*I lift mine eyes; the cloud grows thin, I see the blue above it;
And day by day this pathway smoothes, Since first I learned to love it:
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, A fountain ever springing:
All things are mine since I am His. How can I keep from singing?*

OFFERTORY HYMN 711 Seek ye first the kingdom of God Seek Ye First

Treble voices begin second verse – Baritone voices sing in canon

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

(The Proper Preface is read here.)

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

S-125

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM

Celebrant and People

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

S-155

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says the following Invitation.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Prayer Partners during Communion

Prayer Partners are available near the pulpit during Communion.

All wishing to have special supportive prayers for yourself or others are encouraged to approach the prayer partner during communion time.

WEDNESDAY HEALING PRAYER WITH EUCHARIST

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23

12:05 p.m.

Many are asked to remember others, especially for healing, in our prayers. All are invited to join together at this service for a healing laying-on-of-hands, anointing, and prayer for others or our selves. These prayers become our Eucharistic offering as we celebrate together in our Church.

THIS WEEK IS THE COMMEMORATION OF ST. JAMES OF JERUSALEM
He was an early leader of the Jerusalem Church of the Apostolic Age, to which Paul was also affiliated.

VESPERS (EVENING PRAYERS – RITE I) AT ALL SAINTS

Thursday evening at 6:30 pm, Vespers will be in St. Luke's Chapel

Vespers is a wonderful and deeply spiritual liturgy of prayer which is the penultimate of the ancient daily Christian "Prayer Hours." Vespers offers us an opportunity for thanksgiving for the good in the day, to let go of the stresses of work and life; and to turn all things earthly, over to God near the end of the day.

LAUNDRY LOVE SOUTH FLORIDA IS A NEW MINISTRY SPONSORED BY ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Our first Laundry Love event was held Tuesday October 15 at The Laundromat, Rt. 1 in Hollywood where we washed and dried over 500 lbs. of laundry for our guests. There was a tremendous amount of appreciation and gratitude from the guests who attended and it was certainly a rewarding experience for all who volunteered. Here are a few of the comments we received:

"God bless you for doing this, I didn't know how I was going to wash our clothes this month, I didn't have any money left after we bought food."

"I'm hoping to be on my feet next month and hopefully not have to come back again, thanks so much for your generosity."

"We just moved and had to spend what we had left to do that, we would not have been able to wash our clothes and sheets this month, I couldn't even buy detergent. Thanks so much."

"This was so great of you guys to do this, thanks so much! It was a little difficult for me to buy some stuff this month and this was a big help. But understand that I'm not homeless, I'm one of the lucky ones because I live in my car."

Most guests told us that they were going to tell friends and family members who also need help so we anticipate next month to be busier and that we will continue to grow! This ministry would not be possible without the overwhelming generosity of so many of our All Saints family members who contributed in so many ways, whether volunteering at the event or donating money, detergents, fabric softeners, laundry baskets, children's books, pizza, bottled water, cookies, pretzels and a myriad of miscellaneous items. We thank each one of you from the bottom of our hearts. Also a special thanks to Mother Leslie for her ongoing support and her spouse Katie, both of whom attended and helped at the event, to Father Carl who attended, to our vestry for their support, to The Jubilee Center for their ongoing assistance and to the owner and staff of The Laundromat who were on hand to ensure that the event was successful.

Our next event will be held Tuesday, November 12. If you are able to help us fund future monthly events, tax-deductible contributions may be made via our All Saints website. Cash or checks may be placed in an envelope marked "Laundry Love" and placed in the church basket or mailed to the church office. If you have any questions, please reach out to either:

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

“And remember, I am with you always. Even to the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:20

Saturday, November 2, is All Souls Day. There is a register in the Narthex where you can record the name of your loved ones that you wish to be remembered. On Thursday, October 31, during Vespers at 6:30 pm in St. Luke’s Chapel, we will remember all those in our lives who have passed away.

COFFEE HOUR – We Need YOUR participation.

Coffee Hour is an important part of our fellowship and ministry with each other. To continue successfully, we need your help. Please choose a Sunday when you are able to bring ‘goodies’ to share with everyone at Coffee Hour – savory items, cheese and crackers, cut-up fruit, small sandwiches, quiche, bagels and cream cheese, or baked goods, (homemade or store bought). We ask that you bring enough to share with everyone staying for Coffee Hour.

Please sign up for a Sunday on the calendar posted on the bulletin board in the Narthex; or contact John E. Jennings Jr. (chair), Greg Moore, Michael Zukowski, Rich Markiewicz, Rick Ritacco, Yvonne Meyerson, and Penny Fuller. Thank you.

Keeping careful watch over God's gifts

The Lord will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore." —
PSALM 121:7-8

BY KATHY HOOD CULMER

I was near the point of tears last year when I broke some of my mother's salt and pepper shakers. I had kept them safely in a cabinet in the corner of the dining room for years, taking them out a few times during the year to dust them off and return them to their display case. This time, however, I must have pressed too hard on a shelf or something, setting off a chain reaction and causing a number of those shakers to go crashing to the floor, some of them unrecoverable. In terms of dollar value, the salt and pepper shakers my mother had collected for who knows how many years may not have been worth very much. Some, however, had come from pretty interesting places. My mother's friends who traveled and knew she was a collector would bring her souvenir shakers from those places, and that gave them their value to her. I had contributed some in that way, as well.

And while my mother has been gone from this earth for more than two decades, it has been important to me to take good care of "her" salt and pepper shakers, which have become mine, because of what they had meant to her. I treasure them and care for them as though she would someday return to see what a great job I've done and be pleased, or to tell me how proud she was of the loving care I have given to the special gift she left me.

What if we held such regard for the gifts that God has given us for our provision and pleasure? What if we kept such careful watch over all that has been entrusted to us for our safekeeping, including our bodies, minds, relationships, and the earth's resources, taking every measure possible to avoid breakage or overconsumption or misuse and abuse? What if we did so, not out of fear or obligation, but because of our great love for the Giver, because we want the Giver to be well pleased with us and maybe even proud of us?

What if we would spend every day we're given expressing our thanksgiving for all that we have received in the way we care for all that has been provided?
