PROCESSIONAL HYMN 521 Put forth, O God, thy spirit's might Chelsea Square

THE WORD OF GOD

Celebrant Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A SONG OF PRAISE

Glory to God

S-280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

A READING FROM SIRACH 35:12-17

Give to the Most High as he has given to you, and as generously as you can afford. For the Lord is the one who repays, and he will repay you sevenfold. Do not offer him a bribe, for he will not accept it and do not rely on a dishonest sacrifice; for the Lord is the judge, and with him there is no partiality. He will not show partiality to the poor; but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan, or the widow when she pours out her complaint.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Edwin George Monk
(1819-1909)

PSALM 84:1-6

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh re^ljoice in the ^lliving ^lGod.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may ^llay her ^lyoung; *
by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my ^lKing ^land my ^lGod.
- 3 Happy are they who ^ldw^lell in your ^lhouse! *
they will ^lal^lways be ^lpraising ^lyou.
- 4 Happy are the people whose ^lstrength is in ^lyou! *
whose hearts are ^lset on the ^lpilgrims' ^lway.

PSALM 84:1-6 (cont.)

5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a¹place of¹springs, *
for the early rains have¹covered it with¹pools of¹water.

6 They will climb from¹height to¹height, * and the God of gods will re¹veal him¹self in¹Zion.

A READING FROM 2 TIMOTHY 4:6-8,16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN 641

Lord Jesus, think on me

Southwell

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD ACCORDING TO LUKE

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 18:9-14.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

JOURNEY TO FAITH CLASS 2019 CREED

We believe in one God, the Supreme loving creator of all that was, is and will be. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, who became incarnate as God made man. He is the expression of God's love. Through his teachings, sacrifice and mercy, we are redeemed. He is our hope, he brings us peace, he is the channel of mercy, he shows us The Way.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the unseen essence of love, joy and truth who sustains us and provides loving guidance. With God and our Lord Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit provides faith-energy and completes the mystery of the Holy Trinity.

We believe in a universal church as the foundation of faith and a symbol of God's presence among us. Through the church, we are an inclusive community and family that puts our faith into practice by caring for all people and for all of God's creation.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant In peace, let us pray to the Lord:

Leader For the Church of God, that we may be filled with love, generosity and truth so to transform our communities and our world;

People May your light guide us and shine through us.

Leader For the leaders of our nation, and the leaders of all nations;

People May your light instill in them compassion and good judgment, and guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Leader For all who hold authority in your Church, that they may shine your light brightly;

People May your Spirit inspire them with creativity, renew their energy, and give them wisdom and love.

Leader For those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week, and for blessings on all of our human endeavors, and for the just and proper use of the beauty and abundance of creation;

People May each of us love and serve you in ways that shine your light in our communities and beyond to free your world from poverty, famine and oppression.

Leader For the sick in body, mind or spirit, especially those on our All Saints prayer list, for those who will receive communion at home this week, and for those we now name in our hearts;

People May your light bring hope and healing to all who suffer.

Leader For all who have died, and for those who grieve, and for those we now name in our hearts;

People May your perpetual light shine on all the saints who have gone before us.

All Oh God, in your infinite generosity you have created a world with resources to sustain all of your children with abundance of food, work and recreation. Help us to let our light shine so brightly the whole world can witness your glory. In the name of Jesus, we pray.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Officiant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept. The congregation may stand or kneel.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

A Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

COMMISSIONING OF THE ALL SAINTS PILGRIMS TO GUATEMALA

THE HOLY COMMUNION The Holy Eucharist, Prayer A

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Beautiful River

arr. John Rutter

Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod, with its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?

Refrain:

Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river; gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.

*Soon we'll reach the shining river, soon our pilgrimage will cease;
soon our happy hearts will quiver with the melody of peace.*

OFFERTORY HYMN 507

Praise the Spirit in creation

Julion

Versus 1-3

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

(The Proper Preface is read here.)

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

S-125

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

COMMUNION HYMN 398 I sing the almighty power of God Forest Green

COMMUNION MOTET Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me Stephan Casurella (b. 1973)

*Jesus, Savior, pilot me over life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll, hiding rock and treach'rous shoal.
Chart and compass come from Thee: Jesus, Savior, pilot me.
As a mother stills her child, Thou canst hush the ocean wild;
Boist'rous waves obey Thy will when Thou say'st to them, "Be still!"
Wondrous Sov'reign of the sea, Jesus Savior, pilot me.
When at last I near the shore and the fearful breakers roar
"Twixt me and the peaceful rest, then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Tee say to me, "Fear not, I will pilot thee."*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Discerning Your Giving Ministry

Thanks be to God for all of God's generous gifts, which enables each one of us to give generously, as well.

THE REV. CN. TIMOTHY DOMBEK

Although it didn't occur to me as a youngster, looking back now with the perspective and wisdom of age I can honestly say that one of the great privileges of my life had to be growing up in a household where our parents practiced tithing. They saw it as what we would call today a "spiritual discipline." In the church I grew up in – not Episcopal – they would say it was being obedient to God. No matter. They tithed, and the five of us boys saw it firsthand. These days I like to say, "My parents tithed out loud," meaning we knew they gave to God first, and we lived on the rest. I can tell you we never were without anything we truly needed.

Years passed, and in 1985 I joined the Episcopal Church, got confirmed, and received my first pledge card at the Cathedral of St. James, in South Bend, Indiana. It just so happened that at the same time I became an Episcopalian I also changed career paths, going from a steady-paying job into the then-new field of financial planning, as a self-employed person.

For reflection...

- How can you cultivate wellness in your life: personal, physical, spiritual?
- In addition to your financial pledge, what nonmonetary gifts might you be able to pledge to your congregation?

My journey into the Episcopal Church meant so much to me – saved my life in many ways – that I wanted to give back in gratitude for all I had received. Single, starting a new job with no guaranteed income, I felt now was as good a time as any to tithe. So very naively I wrote on my pledge card, “I pledge 10% of all my income for the coming year,” and turned it in. And I did give 10% of every paycheck I received that year, mainly because I wrote my check to the church first before spending any other money. Not surprisingly, I never went without anything I truly needed. The surprising thing about the “giving ministry” that my spouse, Beth, and I now practice is that giving generously causes the light of Christ to shine in our hearts in a new way. Giving away money is so much fun. We still give to other organizations, too, but that is over and above our tithe that we give to God through the life, work, and ministry of our church, first and foremost. And we still never go without anything we truly need. Thanks be to God for all of God’s generous gifts, which enables each one of us to give generously, as well.

The Rev. Canon Timothy Dombek is rector of Church of the Advent in Sun City West, Arizona. He also serves part time as Canon for Stewardship and Planned Giving for the Diocese of Arizona. He is a member of the TENS board of directors.
