SILENT PROCESSIONAL

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The people standing, the Officiant says

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People

His mercy endures for ever.

The Officiant then continues

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Christie eleison. Christie eleison. Christie eleison.

Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A READING FROM GENESIS 2:15-17; 3:1-7

The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die."

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?'" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.'" But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

PSALM 32

S 188

Henry Walford Davies
(1869-1941)

Cantor sings the versicle – congregation sings the response

1 Happy are they whose trans¹gressions are for¹given, * and whose¹ sin is¹ put a¹way!

2 Happy are they to whom the LORD im¹putes no¹ guilt, *
and in whose¹ spirit there¹ is no¹ guile!

PSALM 32 (cont.)

- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones¹ withered a¹way, *
because of my¹groaning¹all day¹long.
- 4 For your hand was heavy upon me¹day and¹night; *
my moisture was dried¹up as in the¹heat of¹summer.
- 5 Then I ack¹nowledged my¹sin to you, *
and¹did not con¹ceal my¹guilt.
- 6 I said, "I will confess my trans¹gressions to the¹LORD." *
Then you forgave me the¹guilt¹of my¹sin.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in¹time of¹trouble; *
when the great waters over¹flow, they¹shall not¹reach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place;
you pre¹serve me from¹trouble; *
you sur¹round me with¹shouts of de¹liverance.
- 9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that¹you should¹go; *
I will¹guide you¹with my¹eye.
- 10 Do not be like horse or mule, which have¹no under¹standing; *
who must be fitted with bit and bridle, or¹else they will¹not stay¹near you."
- 11 Great are the tribu¹lations of the¹wicked; *
but mercy embraces¹those who¹trust in the¹LORD.
- 12 Be glad, you righteous, and re¹joice in the¹LORD; *
shout for joy,¹all who are¹true of¹heart.

A READING FROM ST. PAUL'S LETTER TO THE ROMANS 5:12-19

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned-- sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

SEQUENCE HYMN 147 Now let us all with one accord

Bourbon

THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 4:1-11.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate
from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant God, you have given us a good land and a generous inheritance as our possession: Be with us as you were with Jesus in the wilderness to deliver us from temptation, that we may trust in you with our whole heart and know the comfort of your presence, as we pray: You are our refuge and our stronghold; our God in whom we put our trust.

Intercessor Holy and Mighty One, in Christ you have taught us that we do not live by bread alone: Inspire your Church with faith and generosity, that we may proclaim the Word that is near us, in our lives and in our hearts, and gratefully return to you the first fruits of all that you have given, sharing the bread that satisfies all of the hungers of the world. You are our refuge and our stronghold;

People our God in whom we put our trust.

Intercessor Holy and Mighty One, in Christ you have taught us to worship and serve God alone: Inspire our leaders and all in authority in the world that they may look upon the affliction, toil, and oppression of those who suffer and may share in your work of liberation. You are our refuge and our stronghold;

People our God in whom we put our trust.

Intercessor Holy and Mighty One, in Christ we are united to all who cry out for lack of bread and shelter, who suffer from the abuse of power, and who are threatened by the fallen structures of the world: Through your infinite love and gracious presence deliver them, that they may dwell in the security of your peace. You are our refuge and our stronghold;

People our God in whom we put our trust.

Intercessor Holy and Mighty One, in Christ we are bound to you in love, therefore you will deliver us. We shall call upon you, and you will answer. Let your mighty hand and outstretched arm rescue those for whom we pray, especially for those on our All Saints prayer list; for those receiving communion at home and for others we name either silently or aloud. (Pause for quiet reflection)

With signs and wonders you have brought us into this place and given us life. Hear our gratitude for all our many blessings, especially for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week and for those we name either silently or aloud.

(Pause for quiet reflection)

As we believe in our hearts that God raised Jesus from the dead, so we entrust to your salvation those who died, especially Justin Flippen, mayor of Wilton Manors, and those we name either silently or aloud. (Pause for quiet reflection)

You are our refuge and our stronghold;

People our God in whom we put our trust.

Celebrant Gracious God, source of all creation, all love, all true joy: accept we pray these outward signs of our profound and continuing thankfulness for all of life. Keep each of us ever thankful for all the blessings of joy and challenge that come our way. Bless those who will benefit from these gifts through the outreach of the United Thank Offering. This we ask through Him who is the greatest gift and blessing of all, Jesus Christ. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil which enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will.

Amen.

A Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

OFFERTORY HYMN 142 Lord, who throughout these forty days St. Flavian

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

S-130

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

S-158

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Prayer Partners during Communion

Prayer Partners are available near the pulpit during Communion.

All wishing to have special supportive prayers for yourself or others are encouraged to approach the prayer partner during communion time.

COMMUNION MOTET Lord, Make Me to Know William Byrd (1540-1623)

Lord, make me to know thy ways, O Lord.

O Lord, teach me thy paths, O Lord.

*O lead me in thy truth, and teach me,
for thou art the God of my salvation.*

COMMUNION HYMN 693 Just as I am, without one plea Woodworth

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING FORTH OF THE LAY EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Priest N. (and N.) we send you out to share Communion this week with

VESPERS (EVENING PRAYERS – RITE II) AT ALL SAINTS

Every Thursday Evening at 6:30 pm in St. Luke's Chapel

Vespers is a wonderful and deeply spiritual liturgy of prayer which is the penultimate of the ancient daily Christian "Prayer Hours." Vespers offers us an opportunity for thanksgiving for the good in the day, to let go of the stresses of work and life; and to turn all things earthly, over to God near the end of the day.

United Thank Offering!!*

The United Thank Offering invites every Episcopalian to:

Notice the Good Things that happen each day.

Give Thanks to God for your blessings.

Make an Offering for Each Blessing.

The United Thank Offering has a legacy, which is over 100 years old.

We ask that you help us continue this legacy!

Each thankful offering is important, each prayer is remembered.

It is our hope that through your commitment and participation as a member of the All Saints Episcopal Church in the 2020 United Thank Offering (UTO) Project,

You will become more thankful and enjoy the giving process!

With everyone's assistance, we are looking forward to surpassing last year's fantastic total of $5,402.43.

So start thinking of all the things you have to be thankful for.

You, our All Saints Family have always stepped up to the Challenge, and fulfilled our "Optimistic Dreams, Prayers and Wishes."

The United Thank Offering Prayer

Gracious God, source of all creation, all love, all true joy: accept we pray these outward signs of our profound and continuing thankfulness for all of life. Keep each of us ever thankful for all the blessings of joy and challenge that come our way. Bless those who will benefit from these gifts through the outreach of the United Thank Offering. This year our Lenten Study will focus on the program by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry.

The Way of Love is a way of life. More than a program or curriculum, it is an intentional commitment to a set of practices. It 's a commitment to follow Jesus:

Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, Rest

THE WAY OF LOVE Practices for Jesus-Centered Life

- TURN: Pause, listen and choose to follow Jesus
LEARN: Reflect on Scripture each day, especially on Jesus' life and teachings.
PRAY: Dwell intentionally with God daily
WORSHIP: Gather in community weekly to thank, praise, and dwell with God
BLESS: Share faith and unselfishly give and serve
GO: Cross boundaries, listen deeply and live like Jesus
REST: Receive the gift of God's grace, peace, and restoration

SIGN UP FOR ALL SAINTS "SOUP"ER SUPPERS

There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex for volunteers to provide the soup for the All Saints "Soup"er Suppers on Wednesdays during Lent. We usually have 20 to 30 people that join us for supper under the tent in Jensen Courtyard, so it would be very helpful to have two (2) volunteers for each week so as not to put such a heavy load on one person. This also gives us more variety to choose from. After the soup supper there will be THE WAY OF LOVE in the Neaverson Chapel. It is always a delightful and
