

Welcome to All Saints Episcopal Church

Guidelines and Procedures

In-Person Worship

We have all watched the continued spread of the Delta variant throughout the world and in our own nation. This threat has been increasing for all of us, particularly the unvaccinated and the immunocompromised. To reduce the risk of being infected with the Delta variant and possibly spreading it to others, the CDC is now recommending that everyone, even those who are fully vaccinated, wear a mask indoors in public if you are in an area of substantial or high transmission. South Florida, including Broward County, is an area of high transmission.

Given this CDC recommendation, beginning this weekend, we will ask everyone gathered at our in person worship services to wear masks, regardless of vaccination status. We will also set aside additional pews for those who would like to physically distance in addition to masking.

I know that some will be disappointed by this decision and others will be reassured. Please know that the Vestry and I will continue to monitor the situation closely and follow the best advice available from science and medicine. Please continue to pray for all those who are infected and those who put themselves at risk to help care for the sick. I know it has been hard on all of us, but I know we will continue to do our best to support and love each other through these daunting times.

In the peace of Christ,

OPENING HYMN 48 O day of radiant gladness Es flog ein kleins Waldvoegelein

1. O day of radiant gladness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sadness, most beautiful, most bright;
this day the high and lowly, through ages joined in tune, sing "Holy, holy, holy" to the great God Triune.
2. This day at the creation the light first had its birth;
this day for our salvation Christ rose from depths of earth;
this day our Lord, victorious the Spirit sent from heaven, and thus this day most glorious a triple light was given.

A READING FROM EXODUS 16:2-4,9-15

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.

Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.'" And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. The LORD spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'"

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat."

PSALM 78:23-29

Attendite, popule

- 23 So he commanded the clouds above * and opened the doors of heaven.
- 24 He rained down manna upon them to eat * and gave them grain from heaven.
- 25 So mortals ate the bread of angels; *
he provided for them food enough.
- 26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens * and led out the south wind by his might.
- 27 He rained down flesh upon them like dust *
and winged birds like the sand of the sea.
- 28 He let it fall in the midst of their camp *
and round about their dwellings.
- 29 So they ate and were well filled, *
for he gave them what they craved.

A READING FROM PAUL'S LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS 4:1-16

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people."

(When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

SEQUENCE HYMN 321 My God, thy table now is spread Rockingham

1. My God, thy table now is spread, thy cup with love doth overflow;
be all thy children thither led,
and let them thy sweet mercies know.

2. O let thy table honored be,
and furnished well with joyful guests:
and may each soul salvation see,
that here its sacred pledges tastes.

THE GOSPEL

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 6:24-35.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The next day, when the people who remained after the feeding of the five thousand saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Leslie J. Hague

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Officiant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept. The congregation may stand or kneel.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Holy Eucharist, Prayer A

OFFERTORY SOLO O Rest in the Lord (Elijah) Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809-1847)

Kathy Dean, soloist

Oh rest in the Lord, wait patiently for Him, and He shall give thee thy heart's desires.

Commit thy way unto Him, and trust in Him, and fret not thyself because of evildoers.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant All things come from thee O Lord,

People And of thine own have we given thee.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing

S125

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION SAID BY THOSE NOT PRESENT AT HOLY COMMUNION

The Celebrant leads the livestream worshippers in this prayer.

In union, O Lord, with the faithful of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, we desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. We present to you our souls and bodies with the earnest wish that we may always be united to you. And since we cannot now receive you sacramentally, we beseech you to come spiritually into our hearts. We unite ourselves with you and embrace you with all the love of our souls. Let nothing ever separate you from us. May we live in you, and may you live in us, both in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

COMMUNION SOLO A Mighty Fortress is our God

Martin Luther/

Hans Leo Hassler

1. *A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
our helper he, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing:
for still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;
his craft and power are great, and, armed with cruel hate, on earth is not his equal.*

2. *Did we in our strength confide, our striving would be losing;
were not the right man on our side, the man of God's own choosing:
dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth, his Name, from age to age the same,
and he must win the battle.*
3. *And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us, we will not fear, for God hath willed his truth to triumph through us;
the prince of darkness grim, we tremble not for him;
his rage we can endure, for lo! his doom is sure,
one little word shall fell him.*
4. *That word above all earthly powers, no thanks to them, abideth;
the Spirit and the gifts are ours through him who with us sideth:
let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also;
the body they may kill: God's truth abideth still,
his kingdom is forever.*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

CLOSING HYMN 522 Glorious things of thee are spoken Austria

1. Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God;
he whose word cannot be broken formed thee for his own abode;
on the Rock of Ages founded, what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded, thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
2. See! the streams of living waters, springing from eternal love, well supply thy sons and daughters and all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, when such a river ever flows their thirst to assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver, never fails from age to age.

DISMISSAL

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia.

Laundry Love South Florida

We are very thankful to every person in our All Saints family (and beyond) for their continued support of Laundry Love South Florida. Your outstanding generosity has helped those less fortunate individuals, which includes homeless as well as economically challenged single persons and families, with the ability to have clean clothing and bedding.

As we announced previously, due to the onset of COVID, we had to stop our monthly volunteer events in March 2020, but we resurrected Laundry Love South Florida in late November 2020, in a different way. Through our partnership with The Laundromart, 1410 N. Federal Highway, Hollywood, FL; we were able to work out a process where their attendants now temporarily assist our guests until we can resume again with our volunteer team in person. We hope to resume in person events sometime in the fall of this year. We continue to monitor the CDC, along with diocesan guidelines, in order to ensure the safety of all of our volunteers.

By every measure, Laundry Love South Florida has been a resounding success! We have now completed 14 total months of helping those less fortunate since we first began this ministry in October, 2019. As of the end of June, 2021, we helped over 600 guests wash over 2500 loads of laundry, which is equal to over 25 tons of clean laundry!

Again, we owe our special thanks to each of you who have pitched in to make Laundry Love South Florida a success. We invite members of All Saints and anyone in the South Florida community who is interested, to support Laundry Love in one or more of the following ways:

We spend approximately $600 monthly to support this ministry.

Tax-deductible donations can be made online at the All Saints website or by mailing checks to All Saints at 333 Tarpon Dr, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301 (be sure to write "Laundry Love" in the memo section of the check).

We also welcome supplies such as laundry pods, bottled or powdered detergents, and fabric softener sheets. We are now running low on these items, and if you are able, you can drop these off in the All Saints vestibule on Sundays or by contacting the church office to check on a time to stop by.

About Laundry Love South Florida

Laundry Love South Florida is a ministry of All Saints Episcopal Church in Fort Lauderdale, FL, which assists homeless and low-income individuals in washing their clothing and bedding for free. Based on recent national statistics, individuals who do not have laundry appliances can spend between $56 - $84 per month on washing clothing and bedding. Additionally, unsanitary or dirty clothing and bedding can have adverse effects on children in school as well as lead to health and mental wellness issues in adults. For more information about Laundry Love, please contact Rich Markiewicz.

OUTREACH

The outreach committee is looking for people to participate in a housecleaning day at the Jubilee Center in Hollywood. They need help getting their space organized. All work will be indoors. If you are interested, please email Frank Astorita at frankdon724@att.net. Date to be determined.

The committee is also excited to begin collecting and shipping supplies to Ninos Creadores de Historian, an after school program in Guatemala serving first and second graders . Several of our church members have visited the school to do much needed repairs and volunteer work. Our committee member, David Pearce is our contact with the school. David is in touch with Deacon Phyllis Manoogian , the director of the school, and she has given us a wish list. There are several ways to support this mission :

1. Donate school supplies . They are in need of basic supplies such as paper, fat pencils , construction paper, glue sticks etc. (all on sale now for back to school) there is a box in the Narthex to collect these items.
2. David has collected many iPads that Deacon Phyllis has requested for the students. We are looking for anyone who can reset them to the factory setting and then install kids books in Spanish and educational games. Please contact David if you can help- Depearce1@comcast .net
3. Straight up Money! The school serves 1000 lunches a month from a tiny kitchen and needs money to buy food to serve these children . Please see our church website and locate the donate button. There you will see the school located under the drop down menu.

Thank you all! ❤️ ❤️
