THE COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM DEUTERONOMY 18:15-20

Moses said: The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die." Then the LORD replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak – that prophet shall die."

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God

PSALM 111

1 Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the deeds of the LORD! *

they are studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *

and his righteousness endures for ever.

4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *

the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He gives food to those who fear him; *

he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works * in giving them the lands of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *

— all his commandments are sure.

A READING FROM THE 1st LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him.

Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.” Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth – as in fact there are many gods and many lords – yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. “Food will not bring us close to God.” We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God

SEQUENCE HYMN 536 Open your ears, O faithful people

Torah song

THE GOSPEL

Gospeler Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 1:21-28.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching – with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE REV. LESLIE J. HAGUE

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Intercessor We lift up to you those we love but see no longer, and those we name either silently or aloud. Silence

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

A Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

The Peace is then exchanged

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

HOLY COMMUNION EUCHARISTIC PRAYER B

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Heavenly Light
Gary W. Arnold, Conductor

A. Kopylov (1854-1911)

Sent from heaven, thy rays were given on great and small to shine, O Light Divine! May each soul in sorrow's night see the heavenly light! Thou blessing to all creation, lead us to our salvation! All those whose feet may falter, lead unto the sacred altar! Oh shine from above, Divine Light of love! Show us the way unto our God, we pray! Thou our beacon and guide shalt be! Light Divine, we praise Thee!

OFFERTORY HYMN 567

Thine arm, O Lord in days of old

St. Matthew

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing

S-125

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the Ever-Blessed Virgin Mary, and with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Celebrant and People

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

S-155

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

COMMUNION ANTHEM Jesus Christ the apple tree Elizabeth Poston (1905-87)

The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit and always green: The trees of nature fruitless be compared with Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel: By faith I know, but ne'er can tell. The glory which I now can see in Jesus Christ the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought, and pleasure dearly I have bought: I missed of all; but now I see 'tis found in Jesus Christ the apple tree.

I'm weary with my former toil, here I will sit and rest awhile: Under the shadow I will be, of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive, it keeps my dying faith alive; Which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ the apple tree.

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION SAID BY THOSE NOT PRESENT AT HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant In union, O Lord, with the faithful of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, we desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving.
We present to you our souls and bodies with the earnest wish that we may always be united to you. And since we cannot now receive you sacramentally, we beseech you to come spiritually into our hearts. We unite ourselves with you and embrace you with all the love of our souls. Let nothing ever separate you from us. May we live in you, and may you live in us, both in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING FORTH OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Officiant Mother Leslie, we send you out to share communion this week with our fellow Episcopalians and friends at John Knox Village.

People May you carry the prayers of all of us as you take this sacrament of Christ's presence.

Officiant May those who receive it from you be strengthened and encouraged in that community we have together in our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

MANY THANKS FROM THE OUTREACH COMMITTEE!

The Outreach Committee is so grateful to all the loving hands that put together the Streetlight Packets for the homeless. Thanks to Cynthia and Jon Floria we had a full supply of snacks to pack into out packets and we made close to 160 of them!!!! They were blessed by Mother Leslie and are ready to send out into the community. They are for sale in the Narthex, the money goes to replenishing our supply to make new packets.

On another front , David Pearce has spearheaded the purchase of over 1000 brand-new Spanish language books for the after-school program in Guatemala that we support. The books were purchased with outreach funds and will be shipped to the school for use in the after-school program and the local primary school. Our next goal for the school is to purchase an additional 1600 books and ship them as soon as we can fund the purchase. We are working on scheduling our next Peanut butter and jam event so stay tuned.

Rooted IN Abundance

Did you know that even given our substantial endowment funds, the largest percentage of our operating income each year is your pledges and plate donations?

At their meeting this coming Tuesday, January 30, the Vestry will be discussing and adopting the 2024 budget for All Saints Episcopal Church. While on the surface it may appear that some of it is unrelated to ministry – e.g. insurance, utilities, office expenses. However, everything in the budget is part of our Rooted in Abundance ministry. A few examples:

- The electric bill is necessary for light, sound, and HVAC systems, all essential to our congregation on Sunday morning, when we learn together, pray together, and are nourished in the sacraments. All this is done so that we might go back into the world as a people further aware of the holiness all around us so that we may live out the Gospel in word and in deed as we go about our everyday lives. That electric bill also allows us to open our doors for six 12 step meetings each week, make sandwiches for our Peanut Butter & Jamboree outreach, and be open for other community events and concerts.
- Communications expenses allows us to spread important information within the parish community, such as within this very announcement. It also allows us to have an online presence through our website and social media for those who may be looking for a church – evangelism! – and get the word out for exciting events like Boat Parade Festival. It is our communications team that does media relations. Because of their expertise in approaching outlets, we have had featured stories on local TV news about our Drive In Communion (including a live afternoon interview with Mother Leslie) and Laundry Love; a big feature article about Laundry Love in the Sun Sentinel; and a number of op-eds published. This budget line item helps spread the word of our ministries!
- “Accounting Service” sounds administrative only, but it is also an important part of Stewardship. Through this line item, we pay for accountants who make weekly and monthly accounting; ensure that income and expenses are correctly identified within our many funds; and perform a yearly audit of the parish finances. This is ministry allowing us to be transparent with you and the diocese to ensure we are using our gifts wisely and appropriately.

We often only think of ministry being music or outreach or other “churchy” programs. However, all the items in the budget are there to directly or indirectly enable us to live into our full baptismal covenant as individuals and as a parish.

Thank you to those who made a Rooted in Abundance pledge for 2024. If you have not yet made a pledge, there is still time! Please return your Rooted in Abundance card or otherwise let the office know the gift you intend for 2024. Electronic version of the pledge card is on our website. We also have pledge cards in the Narthex if you need one.

As shown in the table below, we currently have 117 pledges totaling $368,254 compared to our hoped-for total of $440,000 (10% more than 2023 planned pledges). Our physical facilities are partially supported through targeted endowment funds, but we rely on parishioner gifts for staff and program expenses.
