A READING FROM 1 SAMUEL 16:1-13

The LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons.” Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’ Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you.” Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, “Do you come peaceably?” He said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, “Surely the Lord’s anointed is now before the LORD.” But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.” Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.” Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.” Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any of these.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.” He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The LORD said, “Rise and anoint him; for this is the one.” Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

A READING FROM PAUL'S LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS 5:8-14

Once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light— for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good and right and true. Try to find out what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to mention what such people do secretly; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, “Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

SEQUENCE HYMN 490 I want to walk as a child of the light Houston
The Choir and People will sing verses 1 & 2 during the Gospel procession and then verse 3 after the Gospel is read.

THE GOSPEL

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 9:1-41.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes, saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?” Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.” But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?” He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.” They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.” They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see.” Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided. So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is a prophet.”

The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?” His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself.” His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. Therefore his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner.” He answered, “I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see.” They said to him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?” He answered them, “I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?” Then they reviled him, saying, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from.” The man answered, “Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.” They answered him, “You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?” And they drove him out. Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered, “And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him.” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he.” He said, “Lord, I believe.” And he worshiped him. Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind.” Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, “Surely we are not blind, are we?” Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, ‘We see,’ your sin remains.”

THE HOLY COMMUNION EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER B

During the offertory anthem, we invite your offerings for All Saints' ministry of sharing God's love with the world. You may place your offering in the plates passed by the ushers or scan our QR code to give online

There will be no verbal announcements during Lent in order that we might fully lean into more silence, quiet, and reflection. However, we strongly encourage you to take this bulletin with you and to read, mark, and inwardly digest all of the very important announcements that you will find within.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Brother James' Air (The Lord's my Shepherd)

arr. Alan Bullard

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want: He makes me down to lie in pastures green, he leadeth me the quiet waters by. He leadeth me, he leadeth me the quiet waters by. My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake. Within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill; for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still. For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou has furnished in presence of my foes; my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows. My head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows. Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me; and in my Father's heart always my dwelling place shall be. And in my Father's heart always my dwelling place shall be.

Presider All things come of thee O Lord.

People And of thine own have we given thee.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presider and People sing

Sanctus S-130

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Presider We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Presider and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR NEW NURSERY IS OPENING PALM SUNDAY, MARCH 29, 2026

We are excited to share that our new nursery, located behind St. Luke's Chapel, will be opening on Palm Sunday, March 29, 2026. We will also have Sunday School available for children up to age 12 on most Sundays.

On Palm Sunday, March 29, and on Easter Sunday, April 5, children ages 3 and up will worship with their families during the entire 10:30 a.m. service.

Our teens are joyfully helping with the Easter Egg Hunt following the 10:30 Easter service.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Cookie Proveaux at youth-ministry@allsaintsfl.org.

COFFEE HOUR VOLUNTEERS

Join us to provide finger foods to help keep Coffee Hour welcoming and well-fed! Teams of parishioners willing to provide light refreshments approximately once every two months. Homemade or store-bought—whatever works for you. It's an easy, meaningful way to serve and connect. Interested? Contact Matt Pook at coffeehour@allsaintsfl.org

STOP LIGHT PACKETS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE NARTHEX

Rather than giving cash, consider purchasing one or more of our Stop Light packets to give nutrients to someone in need. Stop Light packets are available in the Narthex for purchase at $2 each or 3 packets for $5. Please put your money in the jar when you purchase packets, as we use this money to purchase additional supplies to make more packets. Thank you for helping those in need and special thanks to Jon and Cynthia Floria, and Frank Asterita for supporting this outreach ministry.

The Voice of Modern Musical Theatre

FRI, MAR 27, 8 PM • ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH
FORT LAUDERDALE

Stephen Sondheim is the defining voice of modern musical theatre—brilliant, daring, deeply human.

Sondheim & Friends gathers beloved songs like “Send in the Clowns,” “Being Alive,” and “Children Will Listen,” and pairs them with works by the mentors and collaborators who shaped him. All brought to life in rich, symphonic choral arrangements.

No costumes. No staging. Just the full power of the Master Chorale.

Join us for a celebration that reveals why Sondheim’s songs still move and surprise audiences today. Take a look at the full program and discover what awaits.

SERAPHIC FIRE

SERAPHIC FIRE PROVIDES A SENSORY MUSICAL EXPERIENCE

DESIGNED TO EXPLORE THE WONDER OF NATURE

SATURDAY MARCH 21, 7:30 PM | ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL

Under the baton of guest conductor Arianne Abela, Seraphic Fire’s Grammy-nominated artists present their annual candlelight concert, performing a complex program of music that exemplifies the magnificence and power of nature and water.

“This music illustrates the devastating impact of water and how nature can take over and leave us powerless. Then the music features the more serene waters we experience, painting a beautiful contrasting picture,” said Abela. “In developing this program, my thought was to connect to the earth and the nature around us. I think people will leave feeling like they had a full body experience, and not just with their ears, but everything about this music is thoughtful and stirring.”

The Pre-Concert Conversation will be presented by Amanda Crider, one hour before the concert. Tickets are on sale now at SeraphicFire.org and by phone at 305.285.9060.

THIS IS TRUE FUND SUNDAY ~ The 3rd Sunday of each month.

Today is T.R.U.E. Fund Sunday. T.R.U.E. (Toward Relief of Urgent Emergencies) is an outreach program of All Saints Episcopal Church and provides help for one time financial crises, such as electric and water bills, prescription drugs, eye glasses, etc. We work with several agencies in the area where social workers vet the legitimacy of the need and work with Phyllis Barnes, our fund coordinator, to provide funds to the companies. We also support other outreach programs through small monthly donations. One of those is "His Walk" which is a shelter in western Broward county that provides short term lodging and food for those in need.

A donation to the TRUE fund is simple and easy to do. Just use the special offering envelope in the back of the pews, or donate online (<https://allsaintsfl.org/donate>) and choose "T.R.U.E." in the Fund drop-down menu. You can also dedicate in memory of or in honor of someone, such as birthday wishes, a special thank you, or congratulations. If you have any questions about this program, please contact the office.
