FIRST READING: Genesis 12:1-9

A reading from the Book of Genesis.

Now the Lord said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. Then the Lord appeared to Abram, and said, “To your offspring I will give this land.” So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him. From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the Lord and invoked the name of the Lord. And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

PSALM 33:1-12 (Exultate, justi)

- 1 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous; *
it is good for the just to sing praises.
- 2 Praise the LORD with the harp; *
play to him upon the psalterly and lyre.
- 3 Sing for him a new song; *
sound a fanfare with all your skill upon the trumpet.
- 4 For the word of the LORD is right, *
and all his works are sure.
- 5 He loves righteousness and justice; *
the loving-kindness of the LORD fills the whole earth.
- 6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, *
by the breath of his mouth all the heavenly hosts.
- 7 He gathers up the waters of the ocean as in a water-skin *
and stores up the depths of the sea.
- 8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; *
let all who dwell in the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spoke, and it¹came to¹pass; *
he com¹manded, and it¹st¹ood¹fast.

10 The LORD brings the will of the¹nations to¹naught; *
he thwarts the de¹signs¹ of the¹peoples.

†11 But the LORD's will stands¹fast for¹ever, *
and the designs of his¹heart from¹age to¹age.

12 Happy is the nation whose¹God is the¹LORD! *
happy the people he has¹chosen to¹be his¹own!

SECOND READING: Romans 4:13-25

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") —in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.”

And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Joseph A. Krasinski

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,

and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

 heart is glad to say the words: you are ho - ly, Lord.

The People sit, stand or kneel

Presider Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

ADULT FORUM TODAY AT 9:15AM IN NEAVERSON CHAPEL

At the Adult Forum on Sunday, June 7, 2026, at 9:15 a.m., in Neaverson Chapel, Cathy Lucas will talk about the Education for Ministry (EFM) program and what it means to Episcopalians.

Did you know that all baptized Christians are called to ministry? Education for Ministry (EFM) is a small-group program designed to help you explore that calling through study, prayer, and meaningful conversation. Participating in EFM is joining a supportive community as you deepen your faith and reflect on how God is at work in your life.

Discover if You are Called... and Discover What That Means.

Father Michael Engfer institution as new All Saints Rector June 21, 2026 @ 6 p.m.

We will celebrate Father Michael's institution at All Saints on June 21, 2026, at 6 p.m. The Right Reverend Peter Eaton, Episcopal Bishop of Southeast Florida Bishop will celebrate, and The Rt. Rev. Elizabeth Bonforte Gardner, Bishop of the Diocese of Nevada will be the preacher. We look forward to warmly welcoming both Father Michael and his wife, Kate as new members of our All Saints family.

Bishop Greg Rickel's final services, Sunday June 21, 2026 @ 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Bishop Greg's last day with us will be at both morning services on June 21, 2026, and we will honor both him and Marti at a coffee hour following the 10:30 service on that day. We are so thankful for all that he and Marti have done for us at All Saints during our transition period. Several people have asked about making donations in honor of Bishop Greg's and Marti's time with us. Bishop Greg and Marti have asked that any money donated be split two ways. The first half would go to the Youth and Children Ministries Team, to use as needed in that program. They would like for the second half "to go directly to the new Rector for his sole use in having the funds to start something new that he would like to try." If you are interested, please send any donations to the office or drop it in the basket, with a donation in honor of Bishop Greg and Marti. We will divide any donations received as requested.

Sylvia Aycock Farewell Letter to All Saints

Hello friends,

It is with mixed emotions that I am announcing my move away from Florida this summer. Singing with the All Saints Choir as a high school Student Scholar was my first foray into the Episcopal Church and the beauty of Anglican music. Since then, I've continued to sing and attend services at Episcopal churches wherever I have lived.

Returning to All Saints as a Staff Singer in 2019 was a wonderful homecoming for me. This community has always been so warm, welcoming, and supportive of me, as well as the Girl Choir of South Florida, and I will always be grateful. All Saints took the Girl Choir into the Parish House during the pandemic and has housed the organization ever since.

And to the All Saints Choir: my Sundays will not be the same without you (and perhaps yours will be a little less chaotic).

Though I am sad to leave, my next chapter includes an exciting position with Cantabile Youth Singers of Silicon Valley in the California Bay Area, and being able to be close to my partner, Ryn. When I visit Florida, you'll know I'm here.

All my love,
Sylvia Rose

Support the Jubilee Center Food Pantry

Please consider dropping off a food item or two when you come to church on Sunday to support the Jubilee Center, which operates from a location at St. Ambrose Episcopal Church in Fort Lauderdale. BOGO's are a great opportunity to buy one for yourself to use and one to donate a second. Your donations feed a lot of people in need! The Jubilee Food Pantry operates with volunteers from St. Benedict's, All Saints, St. Johns, and St Andrew's Episcopal churches, and the Hollywood Hills Methodist Church. Last year, the Jubilee Center Food Pantry distributed 4,314 bags of food, which fed over 12,000 local people. We are so thankful for Tom and Maryann Harman who deliver weekly to the Jubilee Center, and we are also so thankful to all of you who contribute food!
