THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

THE HOLY EUCHARIST ~ RITE II

JUNE 14, 2026 10:30 A.M.

The flowers adorning our Altar on this Third Sunday after Pentecost are given to the Glory of God with thanksgiving by Thys DeYoung in memory of his dear sister, Terri, on the first anniversary of her passing.

Our children's nursery, located behind St. Luke's Chapel, is not staffed but is available for parents to use during church services. A restroom equipped with changing table is located right next to it. You can access the nursery through the exit door located on your far right as you face the altar.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA

Hymnal S 280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Silence

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-7

A reading from the Book of Genesis.

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.” Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?” The Lord said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, and say, ‘Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?’ Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.” But Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. He said, “Oh yes, you did laugh.”

The Lord dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah as he had promised. Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him. Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. Now Sarah said, “God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me.” And she said, “Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-8

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

SEQUENCE HYMN 455 O Love of God, how strong and true Dunedin

*Choir and People sing stanzas 1 and 2 during the Gospel procession,

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:35-10:23

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

“See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”

THE SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Joseph A. Krasinski

A quiet time for reflection follows the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader Holy God, you send us into the world as bearers of your word of peace. Open the hearts of those who receive us, that we might enter into relationship, friendship, and joy with all whom we encounter.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for this nation and our government, that each person in authority will search for the words of wisdom and guidance that will lead this nation and all people into safety, health, and justice.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for the condition of all people and nations, that the Word, revealed to the world, will bring abundant life to all people. We pray for relief for the persecuted, the starving, the diseased, the imprisoned and those who are desperately poor.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for the needs of our community, for reconciliation and the recognition of the dignity of all persons, for continuing awareness and effective action against the injustice of this world, and for those who have dedicated their lives to the well-being of their neighbors.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for healing for all who suffer in any way, that they may know wholeness and peace. We pray especially for Lou, Robert, Janice, Don, Bob, Susan, Walter, Bruce, Jon, David, and those we now name either silently or aloud.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for the dying and for their entry into the light of your kingdom, and an awareness that our griefs are not our burden alone.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Presider Finally, Lord, we pray for your peace to settle on us and remain with us throughout our trials and triumphs. Send us out and give us the courage and the will to live the life you call us toward. Help us to shed our need for preparation and instead inspire us to work boldly to further your kingdom. Bless us this day and always in your name and in the name of your Son and Holy Spirit.

People Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Presider and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

The Presider stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer A

Presider The Lord be with you.

People* And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People* It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUSSanto, santo, santo*WLP 785 (arr. Pablo D. Sosa)

San - to, san - to, san - to, mi cor - a - zon te a - do - ra! Mi Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, my heart, my heart a - dores you! My cor - a - zon te sa - be de - cir: san - to e - res Se - ñor.

 heart is glad to say the words: you are ho - ly, Lord.

The People sit, stand or kneel

Presider Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

*Presider and PeopleChrist has died.*Christ is risen.*Christ will come again.

Presider continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

GREAT AMEN

Hymnal S 147

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Presider and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Seek to Serve

Lloyd Pfautsch

May I live in the world as one who always seeks to serve.

May I live as one who knows the love of God.

Lord, teach me how to live and how to serve.

With my ears may I hear, with my eyes may I see, with my lips may I speak.

May your Word be heard through me.

Thus, as I live each day may love sustain the will to serve. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Said by the Presider and intended for use by those watching our livestream.

Holy One, though I am unable to be physically present today with the worshipping community at All Saints Church, I have prayed with them as the Holy Eucharist has been celebrated. In my heart I feel connected to those worshipping at All Saints with Christians throughout the world. Though I am unable to receive you sacramentally today, I know you are always spiritually present in my heart, in my soul, and in my every breath. For this I give you thanks and praise. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR ALL SAINTS' NEW RECTOR

Presider and People Holy One, we acknowledge with gracious thanksgiving the guidance of the Holy Spirit in discerning your will through the All Saints rector search process. We are grateful for your sending to us the Rev. Michael Engfer, a priest who will bring love and energy to the leadership and ministry of our parish. We pray for Father Michael, for Kate, and for their family as they prepare for the transition to Fort Lauderdale. We give thanks for the work of the Search Committee and all those who were involved in our search. We pray for our parishioners as they welcome our new rector. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

Presider and People Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the Adult Forum on Sunday, June 14, 2026, please join Ann Thomas for Centering Prayer this Sunday. All are welcome...

Not more effort.

Not better thinking.

But a softening.

A willingness to be here as we are.

Again and again, we release into presence.

Again and again, we find ourselves received.

Again and again, held in something larger than our own striving.

Coffee Hour Ministry Update

We thank Matt Pook for coordinating the 10:30 a.m. coffee ministry for the past four years, and welcome and thank you to Sandra Vanterpool for agreeing to coordinate this going forward effective immediately. We also thank everyone on the teams who bring goodies to our coffee hour events. If you would like information on how to participate in bringing food to these events, please contact Sandra at sans98@aol.com. The coffee ministry is very important to everyone at All Saints and is well attended.

Please find the updated coffee hour guidelines recently approved by the vestry.

All Saints Coffee Hour Guidelines Updated 5/26/26

Both the Coffee Hour Coordinator and the Church Sexton will complete an online Food Handler Service Sanitation training to learn how to maintain sanitation standards. The online course is available here:

<https://www.360training.com/learn2serve/food-handler/florida>.

Everyone who brings food must always follow proper sanitation guidelines. This includes handling food and beverages safely, preventing cross-contamination, and regularly cleaning surfaces. Following proper hygiene protocols is crucial to prevent the spread of germs and foodborne illness. Help us by following these guidelines:

- Bring in only freshly prepared foods that you make at home, or newly purchased items.
- Condiments such as mayonnaise, mustard, etc. may only be provided in single-use packets. No shared jars may be used or provided.
- All serving plates, napkins, silverware and cups must be disposable, unless using the following:
 - Coffee cups, glasses, silverware, and serving plates can be used but must be washed and sanitized in the dishwasher.
- Do not touch food on the table unless you are picking it up for yourself.
- Disposable gloves must be worn by food preparers or handlers while handling or transferring food.
- All refrigerated foods must be kept in the fridge until removed for serving.
- Guests at events can take home leftovers in disposable bags. Use utensils or disposable gloves when handling food.
- After an event, we will donate all unused food to a local food shelter.
- Please help us by observing these guidelines.
- If tablecloths are used, they must be placed in plastic bags and placed in the kitchen. Please notify the office that there are tablecloths which need to be cleaned.

Examples of food that may be brought for coffee hour:

- Cheese & Crackers
- Fruit Platter
- Veggie Platter
- Pastries
- Finger Sandwiches
- Freshly home baked or newly store-bought goods!

If you have any questions, let anyone on the vestry know.

Parish Workday Saturday, June 20, 2026, at 10 a.m.

Please come help us to freshen up the church and exterior to get ready for Bishop Greg's farewell and Father Michael's arrival!

We would like to make sure that the church is shining for this weekend! We'll go through the building and make sure everything is clean, dusted and in its place!

Coffee and cold drinks will be available! Please join us if you are able.

Father Michael Engfer Institution as New All Saints Rector June 21, 2026 at 6 p.m.

We will celebrate Father Michael's institution at All Saints on June 21, 2026, at 6 p.m. The Right Reverend Peter Eaton, Episcopal Bishop of Southeast Florida Bishop will celebrate. Please join us in Neaverson following the service to greet Father Michael and his wife Kate, and to enjoy some food and refreshments. We look forward to warmly welcoming Father Michael and Kate as new members of our All Saints family.

Bishop Greg Rickel's Final Services, Sunday June 21, 2026, at 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Bishop Greg's last day with us will be at both morning services on June 21, 2026, and we will honor both him and Marti at a coffee hour following the 10:30 a.m. service on that day. We are so thankful for all that he and Marti have done for us at All Saints during our transition period. Several people have asked about making donations in honor of Bishop Greg's and Marti's time with us. Bishop Greg and Marti have asked that any money donated be split two ways. The first half would go to the Youth and Children Ministries Team, to use as needed in that program. They would like for the second half "to go directly to the new Rector for his sole use in having the funds to start something new that he would like to try." If you are interested, please send any donations to the office or drop it in the basket, with a donation in honor of Bishop Greg and Marti. We will divide any donations received as requested.

Our Nursery is Open and Available:

Our nursery, located behind St. Luke's Chapel, is not staffed but available for parents to use during church services. A restroom is located right next to it. You can access the nursery through the exit door located on your far right as you face the altar.

PLS! SNAP IT → SHARE IT

Please visit, view and share your photos on the All Saints Photo Board located in the Narthex. We have lots going on and everyone enjoys photos! If you prefer, you can email your photo file to Polo at poloinwm@gmail.com and it will be printed and posted on the Photo Board. Thanks for participating and sharing with everyone in the All Saints community!

Support the Jubilee Center Food Pantry

Please consider dropping off a food item or two when you come to church on Sunday to support the Jubilee Center, which operates from a location at St. Ambrose Episcopal Church in Fort Lauderdale. BOGO's are a great opportunity to buy 1 for yourself to use, and to donate the second, as your donations feed a lot of people in need! The Jubilee Food Pantry operates with volunteers from St. Benedict's, All Saints, St. Johns, and St Andrew's Episcopal churches, and the Hollywood Hills Methodist Church. Last year, in 2025, the Jubilee Center Food Pantry distributed 4,314 bags of food, which fed over 12,000 local people. We are so thankful for Tom and Maryann Harman who weekly deliver food items collected at All Saints to the Jubilee Center, and we are also so thankful to all of you who contribute food!
